ARTISTIC EVENTS AT BEDFORD MODERN SCHOOL

2024/25

Booking Information

Tickets for most, but not all, events and performances listed in this brochure are available by visiting our Box Office at:

www.ticketsource.co.uk/bedfordmodernschool

Please check listings for details. You may need to obtain a ticket even for free events - if in doubt please get in touch.

Students involved in productions are entitled to claim two complimentary tickets for the majority of events.

If you have any special requirements such as wheelchair access please let us know when you book your tickets or contact us on 01234 332620.

Parking is available on site.

Tickets for concerts and plays at Bedford Modern School are subsidised by the School, allowing us to keep prices low. Please do not overbook for events as this can prevent others from claiming tickets. If you do find yourself with spare tickets please notify the Box Office as soon as possible as we may be able to re-sell them.

For the benefit of our patrons and for child protection reasons we no longer allow the taking of photographs or the use of video equipment by audience members at the majority of our events. Official photographs and video recordings may be available.

Welcome

Welcome to the 2024-25 season of artistic events at Bedford Modern School. The months ahead bring a packed programme of music, drama, dance, film and exhibitions featuring students from Years 3 to 13.

This Autumn's exciting programme includes such perennial favourites as the traditional Christmas Concert and the Service of Nine Lessons and Carols. Theatre In Transit, our Year 12 and 13 Theatre Company, present a new production of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time this November. The School is once again delighted to be hosting, and performing in, ACT! - a Drama Festival featuring schools from across the county and in December, students from Years 9 and 10 perform Macbeth.

Our youngest students will be displaying their acting abilities in January in the Junior School Pantomime. House Music, Open Mic Night, Speech and Drama Showcases return at the beginning of 2025 followed by a production of Sweeney Todd - The Demon Barber of Fleet Street. This production, showing over four nights, features students from Years 11 to 13 and promises to sell out fast so be sure to book early.

The Summer term begins with Dance! and the Spring Concert - a concert featuring the School Choir and orchestral musicians. The custard pies will be flying in May in the Years 7 to 10 production of Bugsy Malone - a spectacle not to be missed. Finally, to finish the year, don't miss the Junior School Summer Concert or the Art and Design Exhibitions from our GCSE and A Level students.

We look forward to seeing you and thank you for your continued support.

Mary Perry (Director of Music)

Paul Stevens (Director of Performance Arts)

Sian Nazir (Head of Art, Design and Information Technology Faculty)

THEATRE IN TRANSIT

Christopher, 15 years old, stands beside Mrs Shears' dead dog. It has been speared with a garden fork, it is seven minutes after midnight, and Christopher is under suspicion. He records each fact in the book he is writing to solve the mystery of who murdered Wellington. He has an extraordinary brain and is exceptional at maths, but he is ill-equipped to interpret everyday life. He has never ventured alone beyond the end of his road, he detests being touched, and he distrusts strangers. But Christopher's detective work, forbidden by his father, takes him on a frightening journey that turns his world upside-down.

Simon Stephens' adaptation of Mark Haddon's bestselling, award-winning novel The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time offers a richly theatrical exploration of this touching and bleakly humorous tale.

A warlord unrivalled on the battlefield, Macbeth is rewarded with rank and favour by a grateful king.

But with each enemy butchered in his master's defence, Macbeth's own desire for the crown grows until, driven to distraction by greed, he ferociously seizes the throne. But, violence breeds violence, and in a reign born in blood quickly spirals out of control as Macbeth's actions return to destroy him.

Students in Years 9 and 10 perform a new abridged version of William Shakespeare's greatest tragedy.

Stephen Sondheim and Hugh Wheeler's landmark musical tells the tale of a resourceful pie shop owner and a vengeful barber out for blood.

An infamous tale, Sweeney Todd, an unjustly exiled barber, returns to nineteenth century London, seeking vengeance against the lecherous judge who framed him and ravaged his young wife. The road to revenge leads Todd to Mrs. Lovett, a resourceful proprietress of a failing pie shop, above which, he opens a new barber practice. Mrs. Lovett's luck sharply shifts when Todd's thirst for blood inspires the integration of an ingredient into her meat pies that has the people of London lining up... and the carnage has only just begun!
